Being Together—Be More Attuned With Your Partner

“... there are a few rules I know to be true about love and marriage (coupledom): If you don't respect the other person you're gonna have a lot of trouble. If you don't know how to compromise, you're gonna have a lot of trouble. If you can't talk openly about what goes on between you, you're gonna have a lot of trouble. And if you don't have a common set of values in life, you're gonna have a lot of trouble. Your values must be alike. “And the biggest one of those values? ...“Your belief in the importance of your marriage (coupledom)”

An Intensive 2 Day Relationship Workshop Helping Men and Women Connect

If you want to make your relationship work you must make it a priority. Take time out of your busy schedule to make your relationship better than ever. This workshop's unique design ensures that couples will have the privacy and support to focus on their particular concerns together.

You will learn to balance relationship skills, more effective ways of dealing with conflict, and how to deepen your love and intimacy. You will learn how to be truly close to other women and men while feeling secure with your partner. If you are a woman and you think you know more than your partner about emotions, you will be surprised. If you are a man, and want to feel closer emotionally, you will be astonished at your untapped abilities.

You will also have time to spend time together with your partner. Join us for 2 days about love and discovery.

This workshop is effective because:

1. Couples work together as a pair while the two leaders facilitate the learning. Each couple's privacy and safety is respected. You learn very quickly because there is no pressure on you. This is not an encounter group.
2. Workshop registration is kept small. The leaders are available to you during each entire day. You get individualised attention throughout the workshop.
3. Each couple is seen as unique.
4. The workshop is a combination of unique learning activities and training with two highly respected clinicians from Medicine and Psychology. Both work in international forums.
5. You spend the whole time concentrating on your relationship, without outside distractions. We all lead busy lives and wish we had more time to concentrate on our relationship.

The Workshop Leaders

Two Days of Intensive Couples Training

Whether your relationship is not yet fully harmonious, or is already a complete and balanced one, this will be one of the most rewarding experiences you as a couple will encounter. For over 25 years couples have been attending weekly sessions and telling us what a satisfying and learning experience it has been for them. In an intensive 2 day experience even more sensitive issues can be dealt with. You will gain skills needed to deal with difficulties. You will learn how to communicate more deeply and openly. You will learn to feel and express a sensitive balance between reason and romance, discipline and spontaneity, dreams and realism, aggression and withdrawal, fusion and independence. You can teach these skills to your children to improve your family life. The skills you will learn can help you in your work and life situation as well.

This is the only workshop of its type in the Southern Hemisphere: small registration, individualised attention, two highly experienced professional leaders who are married to each other, in a private, relaxed, informal setting.
